

Boston Harbor Islands (617) 223-8666

	Drinking Water	Picnic Areas	Trails	Camping	Guided Tours	Historic Structures	Refreshments	Ferry	Toile Facilities	Boat Slips	Car	Open by arrangement
Bumpkin Wild raspberries and fragrant bayberries, trails to ruins of a farmhouse and hospital, wooded areas; 35 acres (Department of Environmental Management)		•	•	•	•	•	•	•
Deer Large open spaces; dramatic views; students, environmentalists, engineers and scientists may be especially interested in guided tours of the waste water treatment plant; 210 acres (Massachusetts Water Resources Authority)	•	•	•	•	•	•	•				•
Gallop's Sandy beach, views of the mainland; site of 1800s resort and former quarantine and immigration station; 16 acres (Department of Environmental Management)		•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•
George's Hub for the ferry and water taxi; built in 1833, Fort Warren has extensive intact ramparts, large parade ground, and served as a prison during the Civil War; 28 acres (Metropolitan District Commission)	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•
Grape Abundant birds and other wildlife, wild berries and roses along the trails; 50 acres (Department of Environmental Management)		•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•
Little Brewster Boston Light, last staffed lighthouse in the U.S., first lighthouse site in America, exhibits, rocky cliffs and rocky outcrops; 4 acres (U.S. Coast Guard)				•	•							•
Lovell's Trails that pass by dunes, woods and the remains of Fort Standish used during the Spanish American War and World War I; 62 acres (Metropolitan District Commission)		•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•
Peddock's One of the largest and most diverse islands, trails wind through more than 20 structures remaining of Fort Andrews (circa 1900) and around a pond and salt marsh; 188 acres (Metropolitan District Commission)		•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•
Thompson Buildings, rolling hills and salt marshes; conference facilities and middle school; access by special arrangement; 157 acres (Thompson Island Outward Bound Education Center)	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•	•			•
World's End F.L. Olmsted designed paths and plantings; hilltop views and open meadows, rocky shores and salt and freshwater marshes; 244 acres (The Trustees of Reservations)		•			•	•				•

Park and volunteer information available year-round. Call 617-223-8666, or visit Boston National Historical Park at 15 State Street, Boston.
Call 617-223-8666 for special arrangements.

- Subway Stop (Not all subway stops shown)
- Lighthouse
- Point of Interest
- Visitor Information (seasonal)
- Ferry & Water Taxi Routes
- Boston Harbor Islands A National Park Area

Note: This map should not be used for navigational purposes.